Terms & Conditions

1. Qualifying Trips

All qualifying trips must be booked directly through Michelle Thurston, dba Your Travel Concierge of Naples, an Independent Affiliate of Nexion, LLC. A qualifying trip is defined as a cruise, group travel package, custom travel itinerary, or a bundled package of services (including hotels, transfers, excursions, and/or land arrangements) with a total minimum value of USD $2,500. Airfare-only bookings do not qualify for the donation program. All program terms are in addition to, and do not supersede, the terms and conditions, cancellation policies, or penalties of the respective Tour Operator, Travel Supplier, or Vendor, which are reflected in the Client's proposal and/or invoice.

2. Agency Booking Disclosures

Certain invoices or confirmations may reflect Host Agency (Nexion, LLC) or the respective Tour Operator/Supplier as the merchant of record; however, all communications, support, and travel services are provided exclusively by Michelle Thurston, dba Your Travel Concierge of Naples.

3. Charitable Donations

As part of the Journey of Hope ~ Travel for a Cause charitable program, Michelle Thurston, dba Your Travel Concierge of Naples will make a donation to the charitable organization designated by the client, or, if no designation is made, to a charity selected by the agency. Donations are made exclusively by the agency, and clients are not eligible to claim a tax deduction. Donations are processed approximately sixty (60) days after the completion of travel. Program terms, including package inclusions, exclusions, and cancellations, are determined by the respective Tour Operator or Supplier.

4. Governing Law & Partner Disclaimer

This program is governed by applicable United States law, without regard to any state's conflict of law principles. Partners or affiliates who may promote or share information about this program are independent of the agency and are not responsible for travel arrangements, donations, or any related obligations
